

St Gregory's

We have a couple of people from the Chinese community who are interested in becoming Catholics, and so the Chinese RCIA will start on Saturday 8 September at 10.45am. What about anyone else, it has been a few years since we've had any receptions into the Church or baptisms at the Easter Vigil. Do you know someone who comes along to Mass but isn't a Catholic. Is that you? Why not come along to the chapel house on Monday 20 August at 7pm for a cup of tea and a chat about where you are on your journey with God.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament should start back Tuesday 21 August, once the children are back at school. It is really important that we have cover for all the day, so could all who will "watch one hour" with the Lord to add their names to the list at the back of the church. Thanks.

Sunday Café at St Charles-.The Sunday Café returns from their summer break today. Thanks everyone for your support

PROTECTING YOUR INFORMATION –Due to the new GDPR rules, as of 25 May 2018 - we are not permitted to publish or announce names of the sick unless requested personally. Introduction to the Scripture Readings

Proverbs 9:1-6 — Wisdom is depicted in female form, inviting the foolish to be fed from her table and thus become wise.

Ephesians 5:15-20 — Paul tells Christians to give good example and to bless God for everything.

John 6:51-58 — Jesus is the Bread of Life: whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

GOING INTO HOSPITAL? If you wish to see a Catholic Chaplain during your stay in hospital, you need to ask the hospital staff to contact him. There is always a priest on call for emergencies, but staff will not page the priest unless asked by patients or families. Patient's Religious Declaration, which a person when admitted to hospital, or a relative/friend, should give to ward-staff to ensure they can see a Catholic Chaplain. This can also be achieved through a verbal-request to staff. This is necessary due to the way confidentiality rules are applied in most hospitals.

Mass in Queen Elizabeth University Hospital- Father Raphael, (St Paul's Whiteinch) will celebrate Mass in the Sanctuary Room of the QEUH on Sunday afternoons at 4 pm. Please share this post so that it becomes well known for patients and staff. If you are visiting a relative in hospital on Sunday afternoons and they are fit to come down, why not accompany them to Mass?

Parish Pilgrimage in 2020?- 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE OPENING OF CHURCH of ST GREGORY BARBARIGO – Proposed celebration pilgrimage for parish, recently discussed by Parish Council, Fr Allan has made some enquiries with a tour company and the following is a rough idea of the places of interest to visit .possibly in 2020. Possibly 5/7 days with flight from Edinburgh. There is no final itinerary or price as yet, but we would like to know how many people would likely to be interested on going on this trip.

VENICE. 1) The Palazzo Barbarigo Minotto (also called Palazzo Minotto Barbarigo) is a 15th-century palace on the Grand Canal in Venice, northern Italy, next to the much larger Palazzo Corner.[1] Built in the Venetian Gothic style, it was originally two palaces, Palazzo Barbarigo and Palazzo Minotto, later joined together. The Barbarigo palace was owned by the Barbarigo family for several centuries and was the birthplace of Gregorio Barbarigo..2) The Chiesa di Santa Maria del Giglio is a church in Venice, Italy. Giovanni Maria Morlaiter has an additional sculpture found in the second chapel to the right of San Gregorio Barbarigo.3) St Mark's Cathedral, Venice, possibly where he was ordained. BERGAMO. 4) The Cathedral and 5) The Seminary: PADUA. 6) The Cathedral (where St Gregory's remains are) and 7) THE BASILICA OF ST ANTHONY (8) The SEMINARY.... 9) MILAN A side trip to Milan where St Charles Borromeo was Archbishop of Milan from 1564 to 1584 and a Cardinal.

Father would like Daily Mass preferably in one of the significant places, a bit of time at each place we visit for reflection and prayer but also some time for a bit of tourism.

We do not have any price as yet as we are waiting for more details of travel and accommodation. Please give it some thought and we will pass on any further information as we get it
