PLEA FOR HELP

I'm looking for 6 people from St. Gregory's to take part in a focus group about religion and voting behaviour for my Master's Dissertation. I'm studying an MSc in Politics at the Univ of Strathclyde and am looking for applicants who are:

- Born and raised in/around Glasgow - free over next two weeks to take part in a focus group
- happy to talk about your upbringing - happy to talk about your political beliefs (don't need to be a member of any party or organisation)

Your name can be anonymised in the final dissertation, per your request. To volunteer - please email - focusglasgow2019@gmail.com

Full disclosure: I am a parishioner of St. Gregory's and it would mean an awful lot to me to use the contributions of a congregation that have made me feel so welcome. For my study, I'm gauging the trends of voting in Glasgow, and will be speaking to other groups including Church of Scotland parishioners and people who were raised either Church of Scotland or Catholic and no longer attend mass. Yours sincerely, Euan L. Davidson
